

She:

★ Upon a day

I walked on the street.

I saw her face

I could feel her heartbeat

She's my inspiration

every single day

I remember her expressions

When she doesn't know how to say

She's my love

She's the most beautiful girl ever

She's the moon above

She'll be my biggest love forever

So...

Tell me what I'm feeling?

Why her eyes are like fire to me?

You know I'm smiling...

I don't know how I've to be

She's so sweet and she's my love

I love her lips...

I like when ~~the~~ the lights turn off

If it happened I would give a kiss...

She's my love

She's the most beautiful girl ever

She's the moon above

She'll be my biggest love forever.

The moon is not beautiful tonight

For me the moon won't never be the same

but it is all right

★ I can feel ~~inside of me her flame~~ her flame inside of me
