

MOTHMAN

When Jan and Dave were into Jason and Eve's house, they were very frightened because all people in the town spoke about the Mothman. They were very surprised too, they never thought that they could see the creature.

Jason called the police, they thought that if they called them, they would catch the creature and the bad situation in the town would disappear. The police were very excited with the call, they would have the opportunity of being the heroes in their town and all people would speak about them.

The men went over all the area but they didn't see any clue, something which could say that the creature was there. This situation was very strange; Jan, Dave, Jason and Eve said that they saw the monster and he had to be close.

The police finally thought that this was a mirage, four people saw the same but anybody saw him.

Finally, two hours later two friends (Mary and Peter) appeared and they told the truth. It was a joke, it was a person dressed up. They told that on Halloween, their friends made a bad joke for them, Mary and Peter wanted to take revenge and as all people spoke about the monster, they thought it was the most terrific joke.

Unit 8: Myths & Legends

When Jan and Dave saw the Nothman, they ran as fast as they could to get into the house.

Their friends and they were really frightened because it was very shocking for them. So, Jason decided to call the police and he told everything about the Nothman.

When the police arrived, the creature had disappeared mysteriously, everybody was confused because the Nothman was there a few minutes ago.

The police was investigating for a while but there was nothing, so they left, but when they left, the Nothman appeared again and Jan fainted.

Next morning, everything was fine and all the friends tried to forget about the Nothman. They never saw it again.

Story's invention

When Jane and Dave were running to the door of the house, the gate opened! And they could be calm. Their were very concerned about Jan and Dave's situation because they were exhausted.

Suddenly, they called the police and when they were speaking with the police, the tall creature appeared again in the window! The creature was hitting the window and all the people in the home were shouting!

Five minutes later, the police arrived at the place where Dave and Jan's friends said there was a big creature but... There wasn't anything...

Extra activity

When the police knocked on the door, they saw that one window was broken. They went into the house through the window carefully. All things in the house were broken: pictures, photos, lamps, chairs, tables... They went up to the second floor and they saw an incredible thing.

Unit 5 : Writing, the mothman

- Jan and Dave went into Jason and Eve's house. They were all very frightened, Jason called the police as the mothman was hitting the window, trying to get in. As the police came, the mothman disappeared.

They were searching for it all night but they didn't find it. They think the mothman left and went back to its home.

It never returned, but they all left their homes because of the thought that it might return one day.
